

DELHI

The Pride Plaza Hotel

The hotel's newly incorporated Diva Floor is also set to combat the safety issues in NCR to a great extent. For female travellers who either fancy or happen to travel alone, an entire floor has been dedicated to their safety with essential toiletries like cotton balls, sanitary pads, comb, etc. Not only that, only female staff is allotted to look after these divas so they feel complete comfort and safety! What an incredible thought!

priority for the hospitality sector of the city. Many have tapped it in time but only a few have tapped it right. Hotel Pride Plaza being one of them, it is affectionately located in the close proximity of Delhi and Gurgaon and is the first luxury hotel in the capital by the Pride Group of Hotels. This is one of the hotels where you would see suits and boots moving in a 'board meeting' manner. The property has 385 appealingly decorated plush rooms that are fully equipped with best amenities and state-of-the-art expertise complemented by high-speed internet connectivity, true Indian hospitality and traditionally luxurious service welcomes you to home-style comfort and convenience.

Due to its location, the guests get easy accessibility to the nearby Metro station, airport and major tourist hot spots, etc.

Since the city is inundated by a lot of business jet-setters from all across the globe, the suite of Pride Plaza offers specific facilities which are in sync with the requirements of such travellers. From having spacious meeting rooms that can adjust a large audience for conferences and seminars, to spacious suits, the recreational and meeting lounges only add comfort to the stay.

Further, you can choose from the many accommodation available like deluxe rooms, business suites, executive suites, deluxe suites, etc. Each room is decorated and well-furnished with fine upholstery and furniture, keeping the interior to bare minimum. To add more comfort to the guests, the hotel gives an added advantage of enjoying a relaxing spa in the premises. From body scrubbing to relaxing massages, you can opt for anything.

Delhi has been a city with a lot of travellers pouring in and out for work as well as leisure. The National Capital is home to many business and corporate centres with a lot of MNCs and other industries. Hence, it goes without saying that the lodging of such jet-setters is always a top depending upon the level of unwinding that needs to be done.

Post that amazing spa, you can now explore the mouth-watering food with best delicacies from the menu of Indian, Italian, Continental, etc. The tranquil poolside barbecue – Aagaa, a global all-day dining restaurant – Café Priya, a Pan-Asian restaurant – Oriental Spice and Mr. Confectioner, offer true Indian hospitality and traditionally flawless service and are a paradise for food lovers who wish to experience the nuances of authentic Asian recipes or savour the aromatic flavours of international cuisine. Inspired with offering drinks, their lounge bar, Staff too lets you unwind after a long day with invigorating cocktails, mocktails and world-class beverages. From a dinner date to a social meet-up or an office outing, they take great pride in crafting culinary voyages, each culminating in a glorious affair, when you are with them!

The all-day dining restaurant bids world cuisine with a trendy and interactive kitchens. Flavors from across the globe besides a huge variety of Indian regional cuisine, complemented by true Indian hospitality could be enjoyed. Similarly, the Pan-Asian restaurant offers fine dining with delicacies from the far east cooked in the live kitchens.
